

Marcello Verona is associate director at The Lisbon Council since June 2017. He is responsible of the IT and knowledge platforms. Previous has worked as IT analyst and developer in several projects for the italian public administration and government and for the European Commission. He has realized several interactive online dashboards for many projects, included Open Science Monitor (European Commission, 2018), European Data Market Monitoring Tool (IDC, Lisbon Council, 2018), Startup Manifesto Policy Tracker and Scale up Manifesto Policy Tracker (Lisbon Council), European Digital City (Nesta, 2015), Digital Enterprise Monitor (European Commission, 2013). Marcello Verona has a degree in work and organisation psychology in Cagliari, specializing in human resources (University Cattolica of Milan), online cooperation and online groups management (University of Florence). He is co-founder of several startups in Italy and California.